Le Rocher Saint-Michel D'Aiguilhe

A place at the confines, of sky and earth !

A place at the confines of sky and earth !

By its outstanding position, the Saint-Michel d'Aiguilhe Chapel shines above its surroundings. After 268 steps, you'll discover a perfect symbiosis between nature and architecture. An unique place, where spirituality and history meet in a picturesque environment.

One chapel, a thousand years of history

From its construction by the end of the 10th century, the chapel was dedicated to the archangel Saint Michael. Enlarged during the 12th century, the entire walls were decorated with paintings portraying the various elements of christian spirituality. The chapel's façade is admirably decorated, and the patrol path built around the walls allows to enjoy the 360° view.

An interactive area to explore the history of the chapel and its rock

Volcanic area

Here, you may discover the volcanic origins of the Saint-Michel's rock, from the rising of an underwater volcano 2 billions years before us, to the majestic rock we have today. In this dynamic presentation, animations and models will help you to understand the geological history of this unique place.

The virtual visit

Thanks to a large display, you can enjoy a 360° immersion unique in Le Puy-en-Velay. You'll explore every corners of the chapel, inside and outside, and even enjoy the coloured reproduction of the murals. A captivating experience as if you were up there.

The paintings and the cult to Saint Michael

In an ancient restored cellar, an original movie tells about the origin and the spread in Europe of the cult to Saint Michael. This documentary highlights the various portraits of the archangel that are visible in the chapel.

Architecture area

An interactive scale model and a movie narrates the evolution of the chapel. From a small oratory built during the time of the first pilgrims to Compostela, to a jewel of the flourishing local architecture of the 12th century, the Saint-Michel Chapel has suffered the storms of history. Admire this architectural marvel and be amazed by unique projections of the very first oratory and its evolution through the course of time.

Abbé Martin's Garden

At the bottom of the stairs, enjoy the peaceful garden designed to offer visitors a peaceful and quiet atmosphere.

There, you may take a seat on one of the benches, discover a chapel dedicated to Saint Gabriel and learn about archangels.
